

Please save the spectrum located between the frequencies of 3650 and 3700MHz for low-power transmissions at the community level. This is critical for protecting community internet and wireless mesh networks.